INTERMEDIATE Final at Cheltenham. To be confirmed, unlikely to be a Series sponsor.

RESTRICTED Final at Stratford. Series sponsor to be confirmed, but there will be a Final at Stratford in May 2022.

Novice Horse Champion – New. There will be two held at Aldington Races on Monday 18th April and Derwent fixture at Charm Park on Saturday 21st May.

Conditions: For horses which have won a Maiden in the current season. The race is designated as a Restricted race but BHA has given special dispensation to allow those horses, which have won a Point-to-Point race other than a Maiden, Flat or Hunt race, to run.

Penalties: Those horses, which have won any Point-to-Point race other than a Maiden, Flat or Hunt race to carry 5lb penalty. Penalties are not cumulative.

The Jockey Club Fillies & Mares' MAIDEN Series with Final – New. The fillies and mares' maiden series will continue, with all races acting as qualifiers for the series final. This will be held at Berkeley fixture at Woodford on Saturday 23rd April.

Conditions: For Mares and Fillies which have either been placed in the first four of a The Jockey Club-sponsored Mares' Maiden, or won any other type of Maiden, in the current season. This race is designated as a MAIDEN race but BHA has given special dispensation to allow those horses, which have won Point-to-Point races other than a FLAT or HUNT Point-to-Point race, to run.

Penalties: Those Mares or Fillies, which have won any Point-to-Point race other than a Maiden, Flat or Hunt race to carry 5lb penalty. Penalties are not cumulative.

Young Horse MAIDENS. We have at least two national sponsors for the Young Horse Maidens next season:

- The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (TBA) are sponsoring five 4-year-old only races (The TBA early NH racing initiative) with the first on Sunday 27th February.
- Tattersalls Cheltenham are sponsoring a 4-year-old only race before Christmas at Larkhill in November, and a further four 4/5-year-old races in 2022 between February and May.
